

Autumn appeal for refugees

We say enact Dubs now

Stand up to Racism and Care4Calais are launching an Autumn appeal for the many refugees still living in Calais and the surrounding areas, as well as in Paris and Brussels.

We are asking people to bring items and collections to the Stand Up To Racism conference on Saturday 21 October.

We will have a room to store donations and will be organising for them to be taken to France the following week.

They will be taken to the Care4Calais warehouse where they are sorted by volunteers and distributed.

You can find the list of items needed here: care4calais.org/donate/

If you'd like to join the volunteers going over, please email mandybrowncow@yahoo.com

It is half term holidays for many from 22 October and during that week our supporters will be heading to Calais to help.

What can you do?

- If you want to donate items, please bring what you have collected to the conference or email clare@care4calais.org for a list of drop off points.
- If you can collect money please use the following link to donate: tinyurl.com/sutrx
This money will go to care4calais, who will use it to buy supplies for those in need.
- If you can bring a cheque from a trade union or organisation, make it payable to 'Care4Calais' and we will pass it on.

- If you have a car or van and want to travel with our delegation, book a place on a ferry or the shuttle on the morning of Sunday 22 October – and contact us to let us know your time of arrival.

We recommend the Centre Européen de Séjour hostel for affordable accommodation in Calais: tinyurl.com/17calais
