World's #1 racist... Protest Donald Trump's visit

DONALD TRUMP is coming to Britain from 3 June to 5 June and his visit will be met by mass protests.

Last year, a quarter of a million mobilised to say no to Trump's politics of hate and division.

This time we want to take to the streets in even bigger numbers.

We want to fight for migrant and refugee rights, for women's rights, against the corporate elites and for the future of our planet.

This demonstration isn't just about Trump as one man.

He is a hero of the new far right, and a symbol of the politics of racism, Islamophobia, antisemitism and conflict.

The British elite also has a disgraceful record of racism and bigotry.

This is when we will also take a stand together against our own "hostile environment" as well as that of Trump and the US government.

European elections, 23 May

Use your vote to stop the racists and fascists

Trump's bigotry has given confidence to the far right in Britain.

On Thursday 23 May the European parliament elections will see the fascist Tommy Robinson standing in North West England.

And UKIP, now a far right party, is standing across Britain.

One of its candidates, in South West England, is Carl Benjamin. He says, "I find racist jokes funny".

Benjamin, who uses the name Sargon of Akkad, called a disabled person a "retard" and an Asian woman a "chink".

He also made vile comments about rape.

Another UKIP candidate, in Scotland, is Mark Meechan who calls himself Count Dankula. He was convicted of posting material online that was "antisemitic and racist in nature". He filmed a dog responding to statements such as "gas the Jews" and "Sieg Heil" by raising its paw.

Whether you are Leave or Remain over Brexit, these people are vile racists. Don't vote for them.
