Protest called by Stand Up To Racism

WE DON'T WANT
ANOTHER
RACIST
IN N°10

Day & time

The choices on offer for our next prime minister are dire. Boris Johnson's racism is well documented.

He described Muslim women who wear the Burka as looking like "letterboxes" or "bankrobbers" and talked about black people having "watermelon smiles".

He has also argued that Africa should be recolonised "on the understanding that this time [the colonisers] will not be asked to feel guilty."

But Jeremy Hunt is little better. He backed Donald Trump's attack on London's Muslim mayor, Sadiq Khan, after Trump described the capital as "Londonistan".

So in the wake of Theresa May's racist "hostile environment" for migrants that gave us the Windrush scandal we'll have another racist in No.10.

Whether you voted 'Leave' or 'Remain' come and join the protest. Say it loud and clear: kick the racists out of Downing Street!
