On Saturday 3 August Nazi supporters of “Tommy Robinson” (Stephen Yaxley-Lennon) plan to march through central London.

They are supporting fascist Robinson who is now serving time in Belmarsh prison for contempt of court. We can't allow Nazis to march through our streets unopposed.

The anti-racist movement has struck significant blows to far right attempts to build a street movement, and to Robinson's bid to be an MEP.

Stand Up To Racism and the wider anti-racist movement has led several national demonstrations in recent months that took us from standing in our hundreds against a tide of supporters of Robinson, to outnumbering them.

Let's unite against Robinson and his Nazi friends. All anti-fascists together on 3 August.
