Islamophobia is increasing at an alarming rate in Britain. Muslim Council of Britain recently reported a surge in Islamophobic attacks, with a 335% increase and over 2000 recorded cases in the last four months. Instead of acknowledging Islamophobia in the Tory party, Rishi Sunak poured fuel onto the fire. In his emergency address he talked of “parallel lives,” implying that Muslims practicing their own religion and culture is somehow a threat to Britain. He pledged more money for Prevent, when the Islamophobia in targeting innocent Muslims, is well documented. Talk of “extremists” tearing Britain apart, “Islamist” threat and “mob rule” are an attempt to slur Muslims and all those actively asserting their right to protest against war and for a ceasefire. Tory MPs like Suella Braverman and Liz Truss are emboldening Islamophobes like fascist Tommy Robinson. Antisemitic hate crimes are also increasing. The Tories are slipping in polls, so stoking far right fears, Islamophobia, racism and division. We must stand up to and unite against the scourge of racism, Islamophobia and antisemitism. We must vehemently defend the right to protest. Join us, Saturday 16 March, London.
